TOBACCO LANDS. Real Estate, situate on the north side of Severn River, opposite the city of Annapolis, containing upwards of ONE THOUSAND ACRES,

About Six Nundred covered with wood and heavy timber, consisting of White Oak, Black Walnut and Poplar, &c., the residue for the most part under good fences—the whole nearly surrounded by the waters of Severn River, and a wide navigable creek, copying into the Chesapeake Bay, which affines convenient water carriage for wood and produce from almost every part of the land

It is at present divided into two farms, both possessing large banks of insprovement, and possessing large banks of ovstrr shells, and other sources of manure in great abundance. Plaster has been found to act with great effect on those lands in promoting the growth of clover—the soil is naturally of an excellent quality, for grain and other crops, and particularly well adapted to the culture of first quality of Tobacco. There is a good water mill adjoining these lands, and a steam mill in Annapolis, both very convenient to this estate.

The buildings on both the farms are beautifully situated on eminences commanding extensive views of the river and bay, and are in tolerable repair. As persons inclined to purchase will view and judge for themselves,

LATE FROM FLORIDA.

By the arrival, at New York, of the Steam Packet Columbia from Charleston, the Easters of the New York Commercial Advertiser have received Charleston papers to the 26th instant.

The steamboat Florida arrived at Savannah on the evening of the 23d, having on board as passengers Col. Twiggs, Major Mountfort, and two other officers, who left Fort Drane on the 19th, where General Scott remained with all his troops in fine he dth and spirits and excellent discipline. They were to set out for Gen. Gaines' battle ground on the 25th, to unite with Gen. Eastis from Volusia and Col. Lindsey from Tampa Bay. Gen Gaines and Gen. Scott met at Fort Drane and passed one day together-sitting at the same table, and showing as much court sy

An agreement was made by Gen. Gaines with the Indians, to the following effect:-That the Indians and their chiefs should retire beyond until the wish s of the government are known -that commissioners would be sent them by the proper authorities, to express those wishes, and that the chiefs should assemble at any time and place, when and where they should be required,

Os ola, Jumper, Albeti H jo (Crazy Alliga. tor) ill Indians, with Abram (principal adviser of Micanopy) and Cæsar, both Indian negroes, were Capain Hitchcock, of the first regiment of infantry; Captain Merks, of the Louisiana

The general impression at Fert Drane was, that the war was over, a being General Scott's firm intention to make them comply with the terms of the agreement by fair means or foul. No hostile Indians had been seen since General Games left the Withlacochie. Most of the friendly Indians, with Black Dirt, their chief, have returned to Tempa, deeining their services

Despatches were received on Tuesday evening at the Adjutant General's office, duted Fort Drane, Merch 14, which state that General been reduced to the a cessity of commencing troops remained in their position until the 10th. General Gunes relinquished the command to General Clinch on the 9th, and described the Louisiana. The troops under General Chuch tell back to the vicinity of Fort Drane.

It appears that at the moment of the junction of the troops under General Clinch, with General Gaines, some communication had been opened with the Indians. The Indians, however, were fired upon by the advancing troops, and afterwards disappeared.

General Scott reports that he has reason to believe the Indians remain in the same position they have occupied for some time. General Scott continues, "I have instructed Brigadier General Eastis, after scouring the country of voting;
Severally endorsed, will pass,' severally ordered to be engrossed.
